

CASE STUDY Managed Support

Azure (Robotic Automation & Hosting)

Arts & Letters Creative Co.™

Arts and letters is a vertically integrated creative company that has combined the strategic rigor and conceptual ability of a traditional creative agency with the speed and craft of a modern production studio. The result is a creative company that can research, concept, prototype and deliver ideas from the abstraction of the strategic phase through the reality of production.

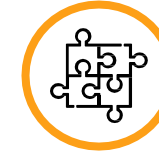

Vigilant provided hosting and deployment of critical Azure Infrastructure to support an automated data mart with robotic automation for data retrieval and data massaging.

Vigilant provides managed support for their entire Azure cloud infrastructure, including VM Management, SQL, and Security.
