

CASE STUDY

Modernized ERP, & Procurement Cloud with a Futuristic Solution

Oracle Cloud ERP & Cloud Procurement Implementation

Credit Acceptance Corporation is an auto finance company providing automobile loans and other related financial products. The company operates its financial program through a national network of dealer-partners, the automobile dealers participating in the programs.

Revenue: $1.8 Billion

Deployment Location:
Southfield, Michigan

Go-Live Date: March 2021

Industry: Financial Services

Legacy Platform: Multiple Financial Applications (Internal & External)

Methodology used

Vigilant used their proprietary Insculpt Methodology that was developed exclusively for Oracle Cloud Applications using Industry Practices and Oracle Cloud Applications standard functionality.

Customer Objectives and Challenges

- Client was seeking a modernized, cloud-based solution to meet their financial business needs.
- Replace multiple internal and external financial applications
- Disconnect reporting information leading to incorrect decision and conclusions.

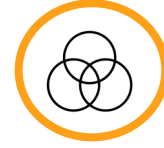

Results

One source of truth across the organization

Improved controls and elimination of dependency

Unified system across multiple applications like Loan servicing system (LSS), Dealer activity, many more..

Benefits Achieved

- ✓ Successfully implemented ERP and Procurement modules on time and within budget
- ✓ Single source of truth for financial data, leading to improved reporting
- ✓ Integrated systems resulting in less manual effort
- ✓ Transparency and visibility into appropriate details
- ✓ Avoided interruption in ability to execute critical financial processes
- ✓ Increased automation, resulting in increased productivity and efficiency
- ✓ Improved controls and elimination of dependency on spreadsheets and manual efforts to generate financial data